

INTRODUCTION TO SIGNING WITH YOUR BABY WORKSHOP

Thursday, December 14, 2004

4:00 p.m.—6:00 p.m.

KEENE PUBLIC LIBRARY

60 Winter Street, Keene, NH

Absolutely FREE!

Parents and caretakers will learn all of the basics to communicating with young children through the use of American Sign Language signs. Topics include, when is the best time to start, the benefits of signing, how to incorporate signing in daily activities, and basics signs. Learn ASL vocabulary including food signs, keeping clean signs, animals signs, and more! Learn all you need to know to get started!

At the conclusion of the two hour workshop, Mary Buckler, the workshop presenter will be available for questions from parents, teachers, and librarians interested in incorporating sign language in their home, classroom, or storytime. Questions may include “How can I convince grandparents that this won’t lead to language delays” and “How can I read a book and do sign language at the same time.”

Mary Buckley, founder of Signs & Smiles, holds Certificates of American Sign Language, Deaf studies, and ASL/English Interpreting from Northeastern University.

Enrollment is limited. Registration is required for this free workshop. Preference may be given to residents of Keene and Keene Public Library cardholders. To register, call the library at 603-352-0157.
